After such a long silence on my part I hardly know if I dare hope you will recognize me -

Been more or less out of touch with what transpires in areas of special interest to us - Kerry moved away, Stephen went back to sea - I neglected correspondence, etc - Anyhow, the result is that I no longer know who is writing what about who did what and with which to whom -

Hope you and Alice are all set for what could be a better year a-coming - With love from all four of us -
