Dear Jeff,

Thank you for your phonecall of this morning, and please thank David Williams for his preceding calls about the FBI release of 80,000 pages of its documents on the investigation of the JFK assassination. Your efforts to obtain these documents and to make them available to the critics place us very much in your debt and I am personally very grateful. I should like to cooperate in this effort to the greatest extent possible, including a financial contribution.

As you requested, I am enclosing a list of the subjects in which I have a particular interest.

I look forward to hearing from you or your colleagues about further developments.

With thanks and best personal regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
