Dear Sylvia:

Forgive the informality, but I feel that I almost know you personally from your work and from hearing your name so often (running the spectrum from Penn Jones to Ted Kupferman!).

Enclosed are two copies of this week's issue containing Joe Masi's commentary. Also note the guest editorial by Penn Jones.

Many thanks for the copy of the letter to CBS News, a "fact sheet" in solid contrast to lack of same on the 4 programs. On the theme of "See how the mighty have fallen," I almost vomited with Eric S.'s upside-down peroration. I will have to admit, however, that he caught the spirit of the programs. Unbelievable.

I hope we can meet one of these days soon.

Sincerely,

John Watts,
Editor-at-Large
