PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mrs. Meagher:

As you know, each United States citizen who is employed or being considered for employment by a public international organization of which the United States is a member must be investigated in accordance with the standards set forth in Executive Order 10422, as amended.

The reports of investigation submitted to the International Organizations Employees Loyalty Board in your case contain certain unevaluated information of a derogatory nature which, if true, might create a doubt concerning your loyalty to the Government of the United States. The information is summarized in the attached interrogatory. It is emphasized that this information has not yet been evaluated and the submission of the interrogatory should not be interpreted as a statement of charges against you by the Board. The interrogatory is submitted pursuant to a provision of the Executive Order which, for the protection of the individual concerned, requires that a written statement of any derogatory information be furnished to the individual and that he be given the opportunity to answer or comment before any determination is made with respect to his loyalty.

You are requested to complete the interrogatory in writing and under oath in sufficient detail to present fairly your explanation or answer to the derogatory information. The completed interrogatory should be returned to this Board within ten (10) days from the date of your receipt of this letter.

For your information, a copy of the Regulations of the International Organizations Employees Loyalty Board is enclosed.

Your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Pierce J. Gerety, Chairman
International Organizations
Employees Loyalty Board
