

Master List for copies of ACCESSORIES (Meagher, 10/19/67)

- Mel Baily, Producer, WNEW-TV, 205 East 67 St NYC 10021 (I have met him several times, he produced several major shows on the WR, was very friendly to me)
- John Berendt, Esquire, 488 Madison Ave., NYC 10022 (personally known; friendly)
- Dick Billings, LIFE, Rockefeller Plaza, NYC 10020 (one phone conversation with him, he expressed impatience to see my book)
- Robert Bonazzi, Editor, Latitudes 6102 Sherwood Houston 77021
(very friendly, writes to me)
- Steven Burton, Chairman, Citizens' Committee of Inquiry Box 150, 380 Westwood Plaza LA 9002
(very friendly to critics in general and, pre-Garrison, to me)
- Mrs. Adelaide Cann, The National Enquirer (very friendly but with such a publication, we don't need enemies)
- Livio Caputo, Epoca, 555 Madison Ave NYC (very friendly, interviewed me for Nov. 1966 issue Epoca, published one-page interview with photo)
- Ronnie Dugger, Editor, The Texas Observer (I don't know him but he is generally friendly to all the critics, supposedly is writing his own book on 11/22/63)
- Gaeton Fonzi, Senior Editor, The Greater Philadelphia, 1500 Walnut St, Philadelphia, Pa.
(very friendly; we have corresponded; he mentioned my Index or one of my articles in his major article on the WR last year)
- Sylvan Fox, NY Times (we were friendly when we met several times in 1965, when his book was published, but he seems no longer interested in the WR)
- Eliot Fremont-Smith, NY Times (we have exchanged letters re: his review of Inquest)
- Kenneth Goodall, The Reporter, 660 Madison Ave NYC 10021 (very friendly, saw him several times last year and gave him information on the evidence)
- Barry Gray, WMCA, 415 Madison, NYC 10017 (Att: Judy Morris) (I have been on his radio show four times, he has been courteous and not unfriendly)
- Warren Hinkle III, Editor, Ramparts, 301 Broadway N in Francisco 94133 (generally very pro-critics; we have exchanged letters)
- Miss Evelyn Irons, London Sunday Times (NYC office) (She called me several times last year, seemed very friendly, used my Subject Index)
- Mrs. Rosemary James, The New Orleans States-Item, New Orleans 70140 (We exchanged brief notes re her book on Garrison)
- John Kaplan, c/o American Scholar, 1811 Q Street NW, Washington DC 20009 (He mentioned my Index very favorably in an article)
- Murray Kempton, NY Post, 75 West St NYC (I don't know him)
- Walter Kiernan, WOR Radio, 1440 Broadway, NYC 10036 (He did excellent broadcast on autopsy photos last year, I wrote, he replied)
- Peter Kihss, NY Times (He is very friendly; in one phone conversation, he suggested that he might do feature story on Accessories)
- Michael Laurence, Assoc. Editor, Playboy, Chicago 919 N Michigan Ave, Chicago 60611
(He phoned me once for information; I directed my letter on the Garrison interview to him)
- Jack McKinney, WCAU, City and Monument Aves, Philadelphia 19131 (very friendly, I did a three-hour broadcast with him last year)
- Robert Northrup, Wall Street Journal, NYC (he interviewed me last year, but it was not published)
- Martin Petroff, CBS News (good friend, met when he was public relations for Esquire)
- James Phelan, 143 Tivoli Drive, Long Beach, Calif (seems to admire my work, has phoned)
- Robert Richter, CBS News, 524 West 57 St NYC 10019 (good personal friend; worked on CBS marathon on WR; very pro-critic, has funneled material to me)
- Mort Sahl, KLAC Radio, Los Angeles (I was on his radio and TV shows in January)
- Harrison Salisbury (we have been corresponding occasionally since 11/22/63)
- Brian Shaw, CBC-TV, Toronto (he called me once and we had long talk about the WR)
- Robert Silvers, NY Review of Books, 250 West 57 NYC 10020 (know him personally, we have cooperated many times but he may be less friendly now, re Garrison)
- Calvin Trillin, The New Yorker (he interviewed me and wrote very friendly article)
- William Turner, Ramparts (he would probably review Accessories)

Mike Wallace, CBS News (he was present at the great debate with Liebeler, seems friendly or at least objective toward critics; I don't actually know him)
John Watts, Editor, Manhattan East, 1503 Third Ave NYC 10028 (very friendly)
John Wingate, WOR Radio, 1440 Broadway, NYC (I did 5-minute spot interview for him 11/22/66)

unless otherwise indicated
