NOTES

Accessories After the Fact: The Warren Commission, The Authorities and the Report. By Sylvia Meagher. The Bobbs-Merrill Co., Inc., $8.50, 477 pages. (Sylvia Meagher also published a 150 page Subject Index to the Report in 1966.) This book, recommended by Vince Salandria, shows the lack of correlation between the Report on the one hand and the Hearings and Exhibits on the other. The Report says Oswald was guilty, but the Hearings and Exhibits create "a reasonable doubt of Oswald's guilt and even a powerful presumption of his complete innocence of all the crimes of which he was accused." From the Foreword--if you read the Foreword you will want the book. She believes a new investigation is imperative because to study the Hearings is to lose confidence in the Report. One thread runs constant, "the effect of each inaccuracy, omission, or misrepresentation is to fortify the fragmentary and dubious evidence for the lone-assassin thesis and to minimize or suppress the contrary evidence."

In the Name of America. Commissioned and published by the National Committee of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam. Seymour Melman supervised the research. 432 pages, $2.95 paperback, $4.95 hard cover. Available at book stores, regional offices of A. F. S. C. or by mail from Clergy and Laymen Concerned, 475 Riverside Drive (Room 547) N. Y., N. Y. 10027. This book is a documentation of war crimes committed by the U.S. Government in Vietnam.

How To Stay Out of the Army. A Guide To Your Rights Under the Draft Law. By Conrad J. Lynn (Attorney for Dave Mitchell). Paper, Grove Press, $1.25, 130 pages.

The Committee of Responsibility (C.O.R.) to Save War Burned and War Injured Vietnamese Children has three severely injured children at Albert Einstein. Donations and requests for speakers or information can be sent to P. O. Box 8874, Elkins Park, Pa. 19117 or call KI 5-6040

On the day of the assassination the national climate of arrogance and passivity in the face of relentless violence -- beatings, burnings, bombings, and shootings -- yielded in some quarters to a sudden hour of humility and self-criticism. The painful moment passed quickly, for the official thesis of the lone, random assassin destroyed the impulse for national self-scrutiny and repentance. Thus, the climate of cruelty and barbaric hatred was restored after what was scarcely an interruption, and it was possible for Cuban emigres -- virtually without regard for the hundreds of people who might be killed or injured -- to fire a bazooka at the United Nations Headquarters building to express displeasure at the presence there of Che Cuevara. Thus it was possible for American Nazi thugs to assault peaceful citizens assembled at a public meeting in Dallas at Christmas 1965. Thus it is possible for Americans to look upon the nopalmed children of Vietnam and listen to their terror and agony nightly over the television tubes, and to go about their daily business as usual.

Few people who have followed the events closely -- and who are not indentured to the Establishment -- conceive of the Kennedy assassination as anything but a political crime. That was the immediate and universal belief on November 22 before the opinion-makers got to work endorsing the official explanation of the complex mystery as Gospel and entreating all good citizens to do the same.
