Dear Mrs. Meagher:

I thank you for your fine October 17th letter and I've been following and looking into the Warren Commission deal.

I must agree that when the assassination first occurred I too fully believed it was the work of so-called right wing. I noted that this theory was followed in full heat to begin with and the Warren Commission spent more time trying to hang it that way and even today there are still remains of that push. ...Which is of course understandable as the CPUSA would gain great stride if such a charge could be made to stick.

In fact Volume XVIII, pages 878-884 of the Commission Volumes shows that Bernard Weissman purposely penetrated a right wing group for the objective of using it in mis-use. Also the document shown at pages 735, 6, 7, Vol. XXVI that a communist plot to get an American President regardless of who was in office in an attempt to stop the "Wildmen" (the Reds word for anti-communists).

However I agree with you that there are a lot of strange things happening.

We see Richard N. Goodwin, former assistant special counsel to Pres. Kennedy, in July of 1966 call for a probe of the Warren Report be made by an independent group. We see in a Oct. 9, 1966 copy of This Week (pub. by the United Newspapers Magazine Corp., 485 Lexington Ave., New York) Mark Lane and Edward J. Epstein both agree that the autopsy reports disappeared and questions it whereabouts.

But low an behold on October 14, 1966 Clayton Fritchey, in the Minneapolis Tribune, comes out with the statement that there is no mystery in regards to the missing autopsy report for Senator Robert Kennedy has such reports in his possession and if there is a legitimate need for them in the future they will be available.

On November 1, 1966 ABC news at 7pm related that the Kennedy family has just turned over these so-called mysteriously missing autopsy reports.

But as you say the truth will come out in the long run. Of course we also know that there are those who will bury that truth if they note it may hurt the new move on in our world today.

Again thank you for your fine letter, it is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Tom Kokovikas
