Dear Mr. Sacks,

Your letter to the Barry Gray program has been forwarded to me. I am sorry to have to return your check but I do not have any copies of my index other than the one I work with. It must be ordered from the publisher (brochure enclosed) and if you are in a hurry, I suggest you indicate that you want the index urgently. They are inclined to be a bit ponderous.

I am enclosing also an errata sheet, with apologies for its appearance. I hope that the subject index will prove useful.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
