Dear Miss Meagher:

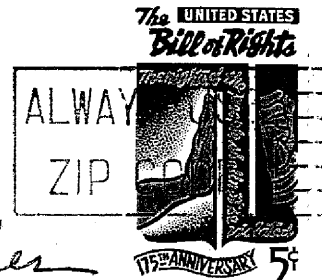

I was certainly intrigued just now to hear your RPFK interview with Mr. O'Connell.

Something about the Event which struck me was the swiftness with which the pictures of Oswald distributing Fair Play for Cuba literature was flashed on the TV screens. I'm probably wrong, but it seemed that it was the same day as the assassination. Someone must have been very ready to get those films to the networks -

Sincerely,

Mrs. Lou Maury
