Dear Miss Hamilton,

I was most interested to see the ads which began to appear recently for THE TRIAL OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as the pressure of work had kept me out of touch with developments—even the question of whether Mrs. Field was able to look at the script, as we had discussed in July.

As you may know, I have reviewed Manchester's book and other works on the subject of the assassination for the magazine THE MINORITY OF ONE. I wonder if it would be possible for me to have a press ticket for opening night, as the magazine goes to press early in the month and it is possible that I might be able to do a review of the play before the deadline for the December issue.

In any case, the best of luck with the play.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
