Dear Mrs. Meagher :

I am pleased to enclose a cheque for $150.00 , the honorarium for your January address at the University of Victoria .

I hope you will forgive the embarrassing delay caused by the late requisition sent to the accounting office . I accept complete responsibility for this regrettable confusion .

I am sending also a clipping from the Victoria Daily Times of January 13th . Mr. Gordon Ritchie , the reporter who covered your address , has taken a keen interest in the assassination controversy .

I am forwarding also the brief article by David McReynolds which appeared in the December issue of the Canadian magazine Saturday Night .

With regard to the Ralph Simpson telephone incident , I am trying to locate him in Australia . When I receive replies to a number of queries I have made in this respect , I will drop you a line .

I might mention also that the CBC Radio Network has announced plans for a special interview with Mark Lane on April 15th . Three days ago the CBC carried a tape of the debate between Lane and Melvin Belli in San Francisco two years ago .

At present I am devoting most of my time to probing the background of Lee Harvey Oswald and find myself in a quandary concerning the antics of Jim Garrison . I would be most interested in your impressions regarding the Garrison probe .

Wishing you every success in your work on your manuscript , I remain

Sincerely yours ,

Gordon R. Pollard
