Dear William:

Thank you for your letter of April 24, 1966, requesting information on the "Warren Report".

Please find enclosed our publication on this subject for which there is no charge. We are happy to help you in your worthwhile project.

Thank you very much for your support in my candidacy for the United States Senate. Your remarks are sincerely appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Look who's on a first name basis with whom. You guessed right on the value of the Texas report; it's just 20 pages describing how they yielded to, and assisted the Warren Comm. Hardly worth writing for.
