Dear Mark,

I am just reading your new book, A Citizen's Dissent, and I must compliment you on Chapter 23, in which you eviscerate Albert Jenner, and Chapter 26, in which you humiliate Louis Nizer, for their respective broadcasts in defense of the Warren Report. If I may say so, these are brilliant analyses—by far the best in your published work.

When I finish the book, I will probably write again.

Yours sincerely,
