Dear Sylvia:

Sorry I haven't written sooner but I have been so busy working full time on a political campaign for Democratic County Chairman. The ~~primary~~ primary is May 7 and things are beginning to hum a bit. It really is quite fascinating and Texas politics are really quite something - rather like, I imagine, Boston politics were about the turn of the century with the exception that a Texan is President and has his greedy, manipulative fingers in everything,

I wanted to send you the press clippings on Curry's resignation but somehow the papers got thrown out. No gossip except there is ~~going~~ going to be an investigation of the ~~Police Dept.~~ Police Dept. here by some national organization this spring and the powers that be ~~had~~ wanted Curry out for some time now. Fritz still has the same job - he's not classy enough for the power-structure. If Curry isn't careful he may wind up, too, in a fatal automobile accident or drop dead of a heart attack.

Personally, things are about the same and when they will get better who knows - frankly, I'm just about bored stiff with the whole thing. Fence sitters are a drag. We are both well, including Lupot. ^{me} Wish I had more of interest to write. The political thing ~~is~~ just may work out into some minor career for me which will probably be the best thing that has happened to me in quite a while.

I'm not surprised ~~at~~ the attitude of the Wertheimers - they really can be tiresomely middle class at times. I haven't hear a squeak from Alex since I left New York last August but I am ~~also~~ also not surprised at that either - a correspondent he ~~was~~ never was and a typist I am not either!

That's about all for now, sweetie. Please keep me informed about your work on the commission and of course, yourself.

Affectionately,

(Marie Posner)
