Mrs. Sylvia Meagher
c/o Post Office
Ocean Beach, NY 11770

Dear Mrs. Meagher:

We have revised your article "Notes for a New Investigation" (Esquire, December, 1966) to include the excerpt from your book Accessories After the Fact, the two insertions you dictated and the editorial changes made by us. The enclosed version is the one we plan to publish in the forthcoming issue of SKEPTIC. I would appreciate your looking it over and, if it meets with your approval, signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. Esquire will grant formal permission upon seeing a copy of the permission form you have signed. They plan to charge us an as-yet-undetermined reprint fee, the bulk of which will be paid to you.

Thanks again for your cooperation. I will, as you have requested, send several copies of the issue in which your article appears.

Sincerely,

Christiane Schlumberger
