Dear Howard,

You have my delighted congratulations on the publication of Presumed Guilty. I must thank you especially for the copy you sent me and the generous inscription.

I hope that your book will have great success—which I define as the complete and official exoneration of Lee Harvey Oswald. I am certain that it will contribute to the force, dignity and credibility of the critics of the Warren Commission during this renewed wave of public interest.

With kindest personal regards and all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,
