Dear Ms. Meagher:

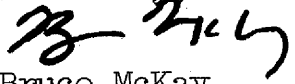

Thank you for your letter of April 3 which Tom Snyder has passed on to me.

I found your materials regarding our April 2 program with Arlen Spector to be quite substantial, however, I ask you to understand that this show was one of a three-part series we ran dealing with the Assassination. The other two programs dealt exclusively with the various conspiracy theories.

With only one hour per show to work with, and so much material to present, we felt the best way to do it would be to let the various guests relate their individual studies without any in-depth challenges or harassment. At that point, we left it up to our viewers to sort through the information and draw upon their own conclusions.

I do want you to know that I appreciate both the time and initiative involved in sending us your materials.

Sincerely,

Bruce McKay
