Dear Mr. Gervasi,

I have received a request from Peter Dale Scott et al to include certain excerpts from my 1967 book Accessories After the Fact in an anthology under preparation. The details are given in the enclosed copy of a letter dated 26 April 1975.

As we discussed yesterday, I wish to authorize Mr. Scott to include the specified pages from Accessories without financial charge.

Thank you for being so helpful. I enjoyed our conversation.

Yours sincerely,

P.S. I am receiving an increasing number of urgent inquiries from people who want to obtain copy of Accessories, which has long been out of print and appears no longer to be available from remaindered lots or any other source. Because of the intense renewed interest in the Dallas assassination, this seems the right moment for a paper-back edition. Is there any chance that Bobbs-Merrill would seek to sell the paper-back rights? Is there anything that I can do personally toward that end?
