Dear Ms. Magher,

Thank you for your reply to my previous letter. Having heard of your illness from Harold Weisberg after I sent the letter, I was not expecting a reply. I am happy to find that you are well enough to return to your work.

Certainly I do not wish to impose on you further inclusions which might jeopardize your health or your work. Taking on the entire Warren Commission is quite a task for any person under the most optimal conditions.

I do hope however we will remain in touch and that you will agree to comment on any material myself or my colleagues might write concerning the assassination.

While it may be true that you have made all of your personal research public the sober judgement, objective thinking and eloquent touch you have given works like Accessories could benefit any WC. critic.

Congratulations on your mention in the Saturday Evening Post. I was pleased to see you and your book receiving favorable publicity. Maybe they will reprint Accessories and then I won't have to deal with all these sticky Xerox sheets. (Incidentally O.
M. Palmer told me some time ago that they were flooded with requests for it and were not hopeful in obtaining me a copy.)

I myself have great plans for writing the brief on the assassination. If my plans materialize I will certainly send a copy to you. In the meanwhile I wish the best of luck in tackling your impending workload.

Sincerely yours,
Mark A. Allen
