

Sept. 1, 1975

Dear Mrs. Meagher,

No need to return!

I hope this note finds you in improved health. On the chance that you missed the small item in "The Times", I'm sending it along. I recall reading in your book how Marina of Ruth Paine put bars into Oswald on this very issue. My only question is - why "leak" this, now?

It's possible to say anything was in a destroyed note, and, of course, did Oswald write it?

You may have seen some of the TV shows this year concerning the case; in too many cases they developed into mud-ball throwing sessions - and where the facts were discussed - they were too short.

As imperfect as a Congressional investigation may be, it's still probably the best hope for resolving the issues. Dead witnesses are gone. I see a road block, though; even the Democrats would it want to, possibly, embarrass Ford on this issue. It's a foolish concept, but after all, he was a member of the Club for so many years.

The Saturday Evening Post mentioned your book, briefly, in the Sept '75 issue. Have you seen the price of "The Post"? I sold 85 a week for 5¢ when I was a kid.
