Dear Ms. Bohn,

Thank you for your kind letter of the 1st. I am glad to enclose herewith a list of my published magazine articles. Please note that the last three items are out of chronological sequence, and that two of them were excerpts from Accessories.

The Minority of One ceased publishing about the end of 1968. I am no longer in touch with the editor and do not know his present whereabouts, although I believe he no longer lives in this country. I have a vague recollection of being told, in 1967 or 1968, that a university or university library had microfilmed all issues of The Minority of One for its archives.

My own copies of my Minority of One articles are in bound annual volumes of the magazine which I would be most reluctant to part with, even temporarily.

I have just realized that I left one article off the enclosed list, inadvertently. I will add it at the bottom of the page.

I am sorry that I cannot be of greater help but I do wish you all good luck with your project.

Yours very sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
