Dear Sylvia:

A brief note to accompany a copy of an article being sent to you under separate cover, an offset from the Capital Times, December 1,2,3,4, 1975, generally entitled "JFK Assassination."

After being rejected by numerous journals and papers the Times accepted it after insisting I add the first portion concerning the central question. They used it to combat CBS's filthy presentation.

Needless to add their editorial staff removed the footnote apparatus and slightly edited the paper to fit the style and format of the newspaper. In so doing they omitted a word or two and added a few misspellings as well as typographical errors, all of which I trust are self-evident.

A reference to AAF was worked into the body of the text and the omitted notes contained a more detailed commentary on it. I have learned subsequently that it might be published early next year in paperback. If so I hope you will be able to send me a promotional flyer so that I can reproduce it to send to the many teachers and citizens who ask me for books to read. As of now many simply xerox the book and use it in that form.

At the present time I am hoping to revise, expand, and make more critical my annotated bibliography. If and when this stage is reached, in the midst of a schedule that includes finishing a volume on the question of peace in Western Civilization (or what passes for civilization) I would like to ask you for suggestions on the approach. The counter-attack by the reactionaries has started in earnest, but they do not appear to have the punch they once did.

I would appreciate any re-prints or off-sets of book reviews or articles that you might have written.

Regards

David
