New York, New York

Dear Miss Meagher:

Thank you for your most impressive analysis of the Louis Nizer broadcast. Obviously, his homework leaves something to be desired. But my central point, however ineptly worded, was merely to suggest that a TV presentation should make every effort to offer simultaneously the areas of conflict. The layman cannot retain in his mind all that he may have read when the Warren Report was issued. Might I impose now on your knowledge? Of all the defenders of the Warren Report, which one in your judgment is the soundest?

Sincerely,
