Dear Sylvia:

Yes, my suit against the government for some of the Warren Commission artifacts is still alive!!!

At long last I have gotten a partial first-draft brief of reply from my Topeka lawyers and on which I should like any of your suggestions. The lawyer who is writing the brief is the former law partner of the judge who will hear the argument but I still do not understand their penchant for delay. In our final brief we intend to ask for several more items.

Enclosed are:

1. My original complaint
2. Defendants' motion to dismiss, or in the alternative, for summary judgement.
3. Memorandum in support of defendants' motion to dismiss, or in the alternative, for summary judgement.
4. First draft of my brief in reply.

Should appreciate if you could return all four of these items to me with any comments. When my final brief is ready I will return them, if you wish, with my final brief. Have sent copy to Harold Weisberg and to Fensterwald.

Shall look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

John Nichols
