Oswald's Widow Has Baby Boy

RICHARDSON, Tex., July 5 (AP)—Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter, widow of the man named by the Warren Commission as President Kennedy's assassin, gave birth to her third child the Dallas Morning News says.

Officials at Richardson General Hospital, located in a Dallas suburb, would neither confirm nor deny the published report of the birth.

Mrs. Porter is the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, the man the Warren Commission said assassinated President Kennedy in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963.

The Dallas News said Monday that Mrs. Porter, 24, gave birth to a six-pound, 12-ounce boy at 3:08 p.m. Sunday. The News said the baby was named Mark Wayne.
