Porters Happy About Moving

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Tuesday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters — and they said they couldn't be happier.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" said Marina Porter, who before her marriage was the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, named by the Warren Commission as the assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Dressed in checked capri pants and a smudged white blouse, Mrs. Porter was directing the four moving men who were placing the Porters' possessions aboard a truck for the trip to Greenville, 45 miles northeast of Dallas.

The Porters had lived in their Dunstan Lane home in northeast Dallas since their marriage last year. They had their first child on July 3. Mrs. Porter had two children by Oswald.

Porter, an electronics technician, has relatives in Greenville. He also reported has a new job in that east Texas city. He formerly worked for an electronics firm.
