Independent ASHLAND, KY. Circulation: 18,275

Oswald Family In New Location

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) - Away from the "glass house" she wanted to leave in Dallas, the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald was in her new house here today.

Tuesday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters, and they were quick to tell Dallas newsmen they were happy to leave the town where, the Warren Commission says, Mrs. Porter's former husband shot and killed President John F. Kennedy and policeman J.D. Tippit.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter asked as she left Dallas. A few hours later, she was in two by Oswald and an infant it if you would just leave." He born July 3 -- and a woman hurried into the house to join his friend drove up to the modest wife. frame and brick home.

Greenville, population 21,000, about 50 miles northeast of Dallas.

From across the street, born woman who married Os-Marina could be seen looking wald when he went to Russia carefully over the neighborhood. and then accompanied him Finally she left the small, white home to Dallas County, wore a sedan and started walking to-blouse and capri pants. ward the house. A news photog- Porter was in his shirt sleeves rapher raised his camera. "Oh, no" said Mrs. Porter. ature.

She ran into the house, leaving Their new home is on a side her children with her tall, brun-street in the southern section of ette friend.

"nothing to say."

"Just leave me alone," she football stadium. said.

A few houses away lives Rich-Then her husband arrived. A ard E. Porter, a Greenville firenewsman walked toward him. man who is a brother of "I don't want to shake hands," Marina's husband.

Marina Oswald Porter

said Porter. "I don't want to Marina, her three children - talk to you. I would appreciate Marina, the blonde, Russian-in the near 100-degree temper-this small northeast Texas cot-A few minutes later she sent ton town. It has white asbestos word to newsmen that she had siding and is trimmed in red brick. Nearby is the high school