Oswald's widow leaves 'glass house' in Dallas

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) -the widow of Lee Harvey Os-Away from the "glass house" wald was in her new house here she wanted to leave in Dallas, today.

Tuesday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters, and they were quick to tell Dallas newsmen they were happy to leave the town where, the Warren Commission says, Mrs. Porter's former nusband shot and killed President John F. Kennedy and policeman J.D. Tippit.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter asked as she left Dallas. A few hours later, she was in Greenville, population 21,000, about 50 miles northeast of Dallas.

Marina, her three children two by Oswald and an infant born July 3 - and a woman friend drove up to the modest frame and brick home.

From across the street. Marina could be seen looking carefully over the neighborhood. Finally she left the small, white sedan and started walking toward the house. A news photographer raised his camera.

"Oh, no!" said Mrs. Porter. She ran into the house, leaving her children with her tall, brunette friend.

A few minutes later she sent wife. word to newsmen that she had born woman who married Os-"nothing to say."

"Just leave me alone," she said.

newsman walked toward him. "I don't want to shake hands," said Porter. "I don't want to in the near 100-degree tempertalk to you. I would appreciate ature. it if you would just leave." He hurried into the house to join his Marina, the blonde, Russianwald when he went to Russia and then accompanied him Then her husband arrived. A blouse and capri pants. home to Dallas County, wore a Porter was in his shirt sleeves Their new home is on a side street in the southern section of this small northeast Texas cotton town. It has white asbestos siding and is trimmed in red f brick. Nearby is the high school football stadium. A few houses away lives Richard E. Porter, a Greenville fire-(man who is a brother of ϵ

Marina's husband.