Oswald's Wife Moves Out of Her 'Glass House'

GREENVILLE, Tex. $^{(R)}$ — Tuesday was moving day for Away from the "glass house" the Kenneth Jess Porters, and today.

she wanted to leave in Dallas, they were quick to tell Dallas the widow of Lee Harvey Os- newsmen they were happy to wald was in her new house here leave the town where, the Warren Commission says, Mrs. Porter's former husband shot and killed President John F. Cennedy and policeman J.D. . lippit.

> "How would you like living in iglass house for all the world o see?" Mrs. Marina Oswald 'orter asked as she left Dallas.

A few hours later, she was in reenville, population 21,000, bout 50 miles northeast of Dal-

Marina, her three children two by Oswald and an infant born July 3 - and a woman friend drove up to the modest frame and brick home.

From across the Marina could be seen looking carefully over the neighborhood. Finally she left the small, white sedan and started walking toward the house. A news photographer raised his camera.

"Oh, no!" said Mrs. Porter. Marina's husband.

She ran into the house, leaving her children with her tall, brunette friend.

A few minutes later she sent word to newsmen that she had "nothing to say."

"Just leave me alone," she said.

Then her husband arrived. A newsman walked toward him. "I don't want to shake hands," said Porter. "I don't want to talk to you. I would appreciate it if you would just leave." He hurried into the house to join his Marina, the blonde, Russianborn woman who married Oswald when he went to Russia and then accompanied him home to Dallas County, wore a blouse and capri pants.

Porter was in his shirt sleeves in the near 100-degree temper-

Their new home is on a side street in the southern section of this small northeast Texas cotton town. It has white asbestos siding and is trimmed in red brick. Nearby is the high school football stadium.

A few houses away lives Richard E. Porter, a Greenville fireman who is a brother of
