Camera-Shy Oswald's Widow Leaves Dallas 'Glass House' for Privacy

GREENVILLE, Tex. — (AP) — Away from the "glass house" she wanted to leave in Dallas, the widow of Lee Har-

MARINA Warren Commission says, Mrs. Porter's former husband shot and killed

vey Oswald was in her new house here Wednesday.

Tuesday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters, and they were quick to tell Dallas newsmen they were happy to leave the town where. The President John F. Kennedy and Policeman J. D. Tippit.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter asked as she left Dallas.

A few hours later, she was in Greenville, population 21,000 and about 50 miles north-east of Dallas.

Marina, her three children — two by Oswald and an infant born July 3 — and a woman friend drove up to the modest frame and brick home.

As she left the small sedan and started walking toward the house, a news photographer raised his camera.

"Oh, no!" said Mrs. Porter. She ran into the house. A few minutes later she sent word to newsmen that she had "nothing to say."

"Just leave me alone," she said.

Then her husband arrived. A newsman walked toward him. "I don't want to shake hands," said Porter. "I don't want to talk to you. I would appreciate it if you would just leave." He hurried into the house to join his wife.

Across the street lives Greenville's "Policeman of the Year," W. G. Stigall. He's a friend of Police Capt. Narvel Gasway and Police Sgt. Dwight Gasway.

The Gasways are brothers of Mrs. J. D. Tippit, the Dallas policeman killed a short time after the Kennedy assassination.
