Porter Family Departs Dallas

²⁰
GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP)—
Away from the "glass house" she wanted to leave in Dallas, the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald was at home in her new house here today—still avoiding the press and public.

Tuesday was moving day for the Kenneth Jess Porters, and they were quick to tell Dallas newsmen they were happy to leave the town where, the Warren Commission says, Mrs.
Porter's former husband shot and killed President John F.
Kennedy and policeman J. D.
Tippit.

"How would you like living in a glass house for all the world to see?" Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter asked Tuesday as she left Dallas.

A few hours later, she was in Greenville, population 21,000, and about 50 miles northeast of Dallas in the midst of Texas blacklands.

Marina, her three children—two by Oswald and an infant born July 3—and a woman friend drove up to the modest frame and brick home.

From across the street, Marina could be seen looking carefully over the neighborhood. Finally she alighted from the small, white sedan and started walking toward the house. A news photographer raised his camera.

"Uh oh!" said the startled widow of the accused assassin.
She ran into the house, leaving her children with her tall, brunette friend. A few minutes later she sent word to newsmen that she had "nothing to say."

"Just leave me alone," she said.

Shortly, her new husband arrived, obviously chagrined and angry. A newsman walked towards him.

"I don't want to shake hands," said Porter. "I don't want to talk to you. I would appreciate it if you would just leave."

He hurried into the house to join his wife.

Marina, the blonde, Russian-born woman who married Oswald when he defected to Russia and then accompanied him home to Dallas County, wore the same smudged blouse and capri pants she had on when she left Dallas.

Porter was in his shirt sleeves in the near 100-degree temperature.

Their new home is on a side street in the southern section of this small Northeast Texas cotton town. It has white asbestos siding and is trimmed in red brick. Nearby is the high school football stadium.

And across the street lives Greenville's "Policeman of the Year," W. G. Stigall. He's a friend of Police Capt. Narvel Gasway and Police Sgt. Dwight Gasway.

The Gasways are brothers of Mrs. J. D. Tippit, the widow of Dallas policeman Oswald was accused of killing a short time after the Kennedy assassination.

And just a few houses away lives Richard E. Porter, a Greenville city fireman who is a brother of Marina's present husband.

Sergeant Gasway, however, expressed what apparently is most of the town's opinion, when he was told Marina was moving to town.

"She's free," he said, "to move where she wants to."
