ROBERT L. VANN, 4931 Gaston Avenue, was interviewed at his residence, at which time he furnished the following information:

He recalls having a classmate by the name of JOHN PIC for slightly more than one year, during which time they were both attending the Crockett Grade School in Dallas. VANN expressed his opinion that he knew JOHN PIC, either in 1946 or 1947, when they were in the seventh grade together, just before leaving elementary school to go to junior high school. VANN recalled that PIC had two half-brothers by the name of OSWALD. VANN had become acquainted with the older of the two OSWALD brothers, who, at that time, was approximately seven or eight years of age. VANN was unable to recall whether that would have been a ROBERT OSWALD or a LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but he mentioned that the OSWALD boy was some six years younger than he and JOHN PIC, and for that reason, VANN had very little to do with the OSWALD youngster.

According to VANN's recollection, JOHN PIC and the OSWALD boy were residing, at that time, at about 4600 Victor Street, at the Prairie Street intersection, in a two-story house.

The only other detail VANN was able to recall was that he understood JOHN PIC had come to Dallas from New Orleans, Louisiana, and he recalls that JOHN PIC mentioned having been in some sort of boarding school or other type of institution away from home for a time when he was in Louisiana.
