On April 2, 1964, a request was received from the President's Commission to ascertain the identity of the individual or organization placing advertisements referring to "Running Man" and signed "Lee" in the Personal Column, of The Dallas Morning News, on October 15, 16 & 17, 1963. It was also requested that it be determined if similar ads were placed in The Dallas Times Herald on those dates by the same persons or organizations.
