Mrs. CARL H. (EDNA) CASE, 1903 South Vernon, Dallas, Texas, advised that she is employed as a promotional manager for the MacMillan Company.

Mrs. CASE stated she had seen photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and failed to recognize him as being one among those working in her building.

At the time the President's motorcade passed, she advised she was on the third floor of the building at her desk. She stated that she was looking out the west side of the building and not the front. She said she had not heard the shots.

During this time she stated that she saw no one who might be identified with OSWALD in the building.
