

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date 11/25/63

Sergeant JOHN WEAVER, Irving Police Department, advised that MICHAEL R. PAINE, came into his office on Saturday, November 23, and requested police protection for his home and occupants. PAINE requested that the police station a man at the house at all times. PAINE was advised by the police that such a request was impossible, however, they would try to protect the PAINE residence as best they could. At the time of his complaint, PAINE was accompanied by another man, whose name WEAVER could not recall, who was introduced as a fellow employee of PAINE at Bell Helicopter. WEAVER further advised that a check of his files and records reflected no additional information on MICHAEL R. PAINE or wife, RUTH. In addition, WEAVER provided three sheets of Thermofax copies reflecting Irving Police Department arrest of BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER on November 22, 1963.

Sergeant WEAVER explained that actually the Irving Police Department had been requested on evening of November 22, 1963 to locate and pick up BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER for Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide and Robbery Division of the Dallas Police Department, who desired to interview FRAZIER at Dallas. WEAVER stated that after arresting FRAZIER, the Dallas Police Department picked him up at the Irving Police Department and drove him to Dallas for questioning.
