Detective JOHN P. ADAMCIK, Dallas Police Department, advised he participated in a search of the PAINE residence, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, on November 22 and 23, 1963. He recalled that there were several boxes in the garage of the PAINE residence and that all boxes were searched by either himself or one of the other officers. He could not state specifically which boxes he searched but stated he definitely did not see the Imperial Reflex Camera pictured in FBI Laboratory photograph D-146 or any other camera in the garage.
