Sylvia,

I've completely rewritten the first five parts of the article. I have to spend one more night in the library, and then I'll be set for the introduction which will encompass the 'early Times' synopses - the editorial, "the witnesses," etc, the slow emergence of the controversy, the ~~the~~ Sept '66 Fairley piece, Fred Graham review, and the Times investigation.

I know you're busy, so please don't feel any need to read this right away.
I hope all is well.

Best,
Jerry
