Dear Sylvia Meagher,

I am delighted that you will be vetting Jim Garrison's new manuscript for us. I am interested in discovering any factual inaccuracies so that they may be corrected, and also in your opinion as to whether Garrison's interpretation of events is possible given all that has emerged in the past 23 years.

Our agreement is that you will receive $100/day, but not to exceed $1,000, for the critique described above, as well as a review of any changes Garrison makes in response to your evaluation.

I am including chapters 1-12, and will send you 13 as soon as Garrison supplies it.

I am grateful for your accepting this assignment -- particularly given your feelings about Garrison -- since I believe you are the most authoritative voice on the body of assassination evidence.

Best wishes,

Philip Pochoda
