Historian Calls the Kennedy Death Report 'Suspect'

By CLYDE H. FARNSWORTH

Special to The New York Times
LONDON, Dec. 13—An eminent Oxford historian has added safe orthodox opinion, he said.

At the same time, he said, the report satisfied both the sination of President Kennedy. right-wing plots. Hugh Trever-Roper, regius professor of modern history at Oxford, said that the Warren Carlot he had been convinced from world by its methods.

Instead of establishing the facts, it had set up a "smokescreen of often irrelevant ma- of the commission to answer terial" and had "accepted imcertain questions about the permissible axioms, constructed Dallas investigation rendered of the most popular lecturers rest that he was not compelled at Oxford and an authority on Germany and the origins of World War II, advanced these world war II, advanced these views of what he called "heresy" in a 3,500-word essay in The Sunday Times.

Written in America

The Sunday Times, with a circulation of 1,300,000, said the report had been cabled from America.

for the Warren Commission, the 50-year-old professor wrote, was that it gave publicity to the case for the prosecution—by Joseph Sand. How could any statement made by Oswald be used against him if his state—any statement made by Oswald be used against him if his state that Lee Harvey Oswald was the assassin. He went on:

"Why also," he asked, "and the fact that the press of the DO NOT FORGET THE NEEDIEST! A United States had accepted the report so uncritically.

In part, he said, this was explained by "mere technical necessity." The report, issued under respectable public names, was too long to read and its auditors "obligingly" served up to busy journalists a summary and conclusions, in which the chain of reasoning was concealed.

Journalists "plumped" for a

his voice to those challenging left and the right of American the official version of the assas-

Commission had reassured the Said he had been convinced from the outset that the procedure of the Warren Commission was supported by its methods. truth."

Lack of Notes Questioned

The professor said the failure invalid arguments, and failed to ask elementary and essential questions." he charged.

Professor Trevor-Roper, one of the most popular lecturers called be used in evidence against him.

Oswald was interrogated for 12 hours by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the police, and yet, said Professor Trevor-Roper, the report states that the police kept, "no notes and merica. there were no stenographic or the best that could be said tape recordings."

This cannot possibly be true, the professor said. "How could e assassin. He went on: why also, he askeu, and "The case for the defense has on whose authority was the not been neard, and until it is heard, no valid judgment can be given."

medical report report Kennedy's death stroyed?"

Dr. Trevor-Roper bemoaned

farthe NY Jumes Commet in 12/17/64 Loone regested in Not 1 Guardi 12/26/64