

Bus Stub Traces Oswald in Mexico

Dallas, Aug. 31 (AP)—A new piece of evidence on Lee Harvey Oswald's trip to Mexico seven weeks before the assassination of President Kennedy has been turned up—a Mexican bus ticket stub which Marina Oswald, the alleged assassin's widow, found last week while going through his belongings.

Sources close to Mrs. Oswald say the stub was from a one-way ticket from Mexico City to Laredo, Tex. The stub indicated the ticket was sold in Mexico City Oct. 1 or 2.

The stub was turned over to the FBI immediately, the source said, to be passed on to the Warren commission which is investigating the assassination.

Investigative agencies have spent many hours and interviewed hundreds of witnesses since the Nov. 22 assassination trying to trace Oswald's steps on the Mexico trip.

It is known, for instance, that he was seen in a Dallas bus station at 6 p.m. Sept. 25 and that he crossed the border at Nuevo Laredo next day. He returned to Dallas Oct. 4.

While in Mexico City he visited the Cuban consulate in an unsuccessful attempt to get

AN INTRIGUING DEVELOPMENT

Coming one month before the issuance of the Warren Report, this has all the earmarks of a purposefully planted leak. The great pool of investigative talent failed to find what Marina did (while sending Lee's clothes to the cleaners?) 9 months later. Also, she now has possession of his belongings? More interesting, however, is Oswald's presence in Dallas, en route to Mexico. This raises a host of questions which would presumably be answered in the impending Report (why did he pass up the ride with Ruth Faine? what took him so far out of his way? was he to pick up money and/or instructions for the Mexican trip?). At any rate, the Report preferred to ignore all of this, telling us he proceeded directly to Mexico from New Orleans. There is not even a refutation of him being "seen in a Dallas bus station".

N.Y. Post 8-31-64

Mexico
City
Route