NYT

Rep. Abzug Reveals Some Data That the C.I.A. Gathered on Her

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, March 7—ito meet with representatives Representative Bella S. Abzug of all governments involved in made public today copies of the fighting, including the Unitdocuments that were collected ed States and Saigon, the caby the Central Intelligence bles described her purpose only Agency over a 20-year period as to confer with members of and maintained in agency files the Provisional Revolutionary bearing her name.

Mrs. Abzug, a Manhattan The C.I.A. files also contained Democrat, termed some of the a number of references to Mrs. documents a "collection of tri- Abzug clipped from newspavia and inaccurate informa- pers and other publications. tion," and she again assailed day were supplied to Mrs. Ab paign by Mayor Lindsay. zug on Tuesday by William Mr. Colby testifie E. Colby, the Director of Cen-Wednesday that a separate tral Intelligence, one day before "counterintelligence file" was he testified at a session of begun on Mrs. Abzug at the a House subcommittee on pri-time the agency had begun to hearing Wednesday that the war, of which Mrs. Abzug has agency had opened her mail been one of the more vocal as part of an operation in leaders among politicians. which it monitored correspondence between the United documents released today show-States and some Communist ed that C.I.A. analysis had concountries between 1953 and cluded that Mrs. Abzug had no the C.I.A. action as illegal.

Among the documents provided by Mrs. Abzug, which Mr. Colby said did not include antries in her file

Government of South Vietnam.

One article described a politithe agency's opening of her cal fund-raising party in her mail, calling it "a violation honor at a delicatessen on Manof privacy, my individual con- hattan's Lower East Side, and stitutional rights and the law." another noted an endorsement The documents released to- of her 1970 congressional cam-testified vacy matters that Mrs. Abzug investigate possible foreign in-heads. Mr. Colby affirmed at the movement against the Vietnam

But a notation included in the illegal foreign ties and was not Mrs. Abzug then denounced a proper target of that investigation.