Mayor, Quoting King, Urges Racial Peace Here

By RICHARD REEVES

Mayor Lindsay solemnly quoted the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. yesterday in urging residents of Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant to avoid a repetition of the street violence that followed Dr. King's murder "been to the mountaintop." Thursday night.

say said, in quoting Dr. King.

his own words:

the streets.'

The Mayor spoke at an aft-human dignity and equality." walking tours in Negro neigh-nor Rockefeller had reacted to borhoods and meetings with Dr. King's murder by pledging police officials, religious lead- to press for new legislation deers and the members of his signed to aid victims of pov-staff primarily responsible for erty. Then he added: "I'm was present when Mr. Lindsay race relations.

vision to report that the city was "relatively peaceful."

Mansion receiving reports on said then. the telephone and police radio on the state of the city.

"New York is a great city," people of all races, colors and creeds have been able to live here in tolerance and respect "I think I understand the Mr. Lindsay, who met yester-in an atmosphere of individual temptation to strike back," he day with Police Commissioner freedom that has existed nowhere else.'

The Mayor returned to the make the rounds of the city by me to cool it. I need strong telephone and get some sleep." arms to keep the peace."

On television, Mr. Lindsay referred to a statement by Dr. during the day with other ing of the Yale University Cor-King last Wednesday, when the clergymen including the Right poration, returned to Gracie civil rights leader said he had Rev. Horace W. B. Donegan, Mansion at 6 P.M.

Lindsay Calls on Negroes in Episcopal Bishop of New York; City to Follow Doctrine of Using Love to Fight Hate

"I can only close the gap in failed Dr. King and his philos- the Ministerial Interfaith Assoa broken community by meet-ing hate with love," Mr. Lind-ophy because too few of us y said, in quoting Dr. King. Then, the Mayor added in s own words:

s own words: "Every citizen must make it are preparing to undertake that. Although ne was mannandled "Every citizen must make it are preparing to undertake that." Although ne was mannandled his business to share in the long climb. It seems clear that by a Harlem crowd Inursday common community and share the great majority of Ameri-with smiles and handshakes in keeping the peace. The cans, white and black, are churches should keep their willing to do what is necessary doors open. There should be so that the principles Martin prayer. Parents should be close Luther King stood for shall not with their children and urge perish with him; that we shall their boys and girls to keep off pledge our hearts and our re-ernoon news conference in City Mr. Lindsay noted that both Hall in the middle of a day of President Johnson and Gover-Nicholas Avenue in Harlem

Mr. Lindsay, who was vice dic arson and looting. hairman of the commission, "You can't control the small chairman of the commission, He drove to the Columbia had said during the afternoon minority of kids who want to Broadcasting System studio at that he was worried about new run wild," he said. "We're de-524 West 57th Street after violence. "Harlem and Bedford veloping a strategy to keep this spending five hours at Gracie Stuyvesant are up-tight," he thing from becoming a real riot.

understandable frustration and group of 16 city officials rehe said with a touch of pride even resentment" in Negro sponsible for maintaining con-on the late broadcast," because neighborhoods when they heard tact with local tack forces of neighborhoods when they heard tact with local task forces of that Dr. King had been shot community and youth leaders down in Memphis.

of his home, he said: "It could religious leaders. "I hope the "They acted quickly and firmly have been grim. I'm going to young men of the city will help but with restraint.

Archbishop Iakovos, Greek Orthodox Primate of North and South America, and Rabbi Harold H. Gordon, executive vice president of the New York Board of Rabbis.

4-6-68 NYT

The conference with Catholic "We [the white majority] and Protestant clergymen at ciation, 110 East 125th Street, was held as the Mayor toured Harlem for the fourth time since Thursday night.

Although he was manhandled yesterday in Harlem and during two walks in the Bedford Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn. "How're you doing, Mayor?" said two of the men Mr. Lindpledge our hearts and our re-sources to the achievement of Fulton Avenue in Brooklyn. Alsaid, "There's nothing you can do, Lindsay.'

City's Control Uncertain

An aide of the Mayor's, who especially hopeful that the rec-met twice yesterday with his ommendations contained in the Urban Task Force, admitted Mayor Reports on TV Eleven hours later, at 11:30 P.M., Mr. Lindsay went on tele-Disorders will be acted upon." repetition of Thursday's spora-

He told newsmen then about The keystone of that strategy "the terrific wave of passion, is the Urban Task Force, a in poor neighborhoods.

said later in the afternoon at a Howard R. Leary, praised the Harlem news conference with police actions during the night The Most Rev. Terence J. Cooke, of violence. "The police did mansion shortly after midnight, the new Roman Catholic Arch-exactly what was best under As he walked up the stairs bishop of New York, and other the circumstances," he said.

The Mayor, who canceled a scheduled trip to New Haven The Mayor also conferred yesterday afternoon for a meet-

The New York Times (by William E. Sauro)

AT PRAYER MEETING: Mayor Lindsay at a meeting of the Ministerial Interfaith Association in Harlem. With him are the Rev. Earl Moore, center, pastor of a Harlem Baptist church, and the Rev. William James, pastor of the Metropolitan Community Methodist Church. The Mayor spoke at the meeting, which opened with a prayer for Dr. King.