First Lady Urges Americans for understanding, self-control and steady, de-Americans to Seek lems that made possible such 'Peace and Healing'

Special to The New York Times

JOHNSON CITY, Tex., April 5 5 — Mrs. Lyndon B. Jonnson said today that every American "must look into his own heart and ask himself if every word, every act leads towards peace and healing in our country." In addition to attending the HemisFair in San Antonio to-morrow. Hesident Johnson announced As she left Washington, she his intention not to seek retold the visitors and others of nomination. She told the editors her party in impromptu re- and writers that the President marks that "we travel today would have time on his hands with a heavy heart because of soon and might be visiting Eu-the tragedy" of the death of rope. the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King. "It lays a demand on all too," she said.

termined work to attack probviolence.

"To wrest and bring forth from this cruel tragedy, some good action on our problems would be the greatest tribute we could pay Dr. King."

- Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson ton to San Antonio, Mrs. John-After flying from Washing-and healing in our country." In addition to attending the She came to Texas with 38 foreign news editors and writ-ers on a Discover America tour and to attend the opening of HemisFair in San Antonio, to Stational Seashore.

4-6-68 NYT