POLICE HERE PUT ON 12-HOUR TOURS

6-Day Week Also Ordered (30) as Emergency Measure 10 €

By DAVID BURNHAM

Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary early yesterday ordered the entire 28,788-man addition New York Police Department of on an emergency 13-hour-a-wit to day, six-day work schedule M at until further notice.

The order means an 80 per 20 cent increase in the number of of men available to patrol the the part of streets, according to Deputy Police Commissioner Jacques q 343 Nevard in charge of press re- olv CORE

The order was issued at 3:1501 073 yesterday morning after dis-1,6 orders erupted in Harlem and $\frac{\hbar q H \gamma}{\sqrt{2} q}$ in the Bedford-Stuyvesant sections of Brooklyn following the guida assassination of Dr. Martin Lu- 1990. ther King.

About an hour earlier, the $\frac{9}{18}$ $\frac{6.77}{9.97}$ police established emergency; 12 10 field headquarters in Harlem solT and Bedford-Stuyvesant. The 1 7/8 police asked that the exact lo^{-k} cation of the headquarters not $b_{i,j,k}$ be published for security rea-going sons, and officials followed the si usual practice of declining to talled say how many men were on him

To increase protection on the amount subway, the Transit Authority (III) joined the Police Department, (III) in ordering its 3,100 policement and on extended duty on extended duty.

At the Harlem headquarters) 1995 yesterday afternoon, a ser-canal geant briefed about 800 partitions trolmen on the department's significant the significant of the significant the gan their extended tours in the another area.

Caution Stressed

King, Addressing a succession of !" 12-man patrols, the sergeant-and said: "There will be no indis- some criminate use of the gun. In loose these situations, a firecracker can get everybody to draw his weapon. You will not use your ³H revolvers to pick off snipers. ³⁹⁰⁶B In case you see snipers, take Hely cover, notify the command and later a special sniper team will be ports sent."

As for looting, the sergeant 19600 said: "We want looters arrested, but if you have 100 looters" at 1 and 10 cops, wait for rein 1908/2 forcements. We don't want to hurt anyone."

Discussing looting at a news' 8390 conference, John J. Cassese, the Mark president of the Patrolmen's Brills Benevolent Association, charg-normal ed that the police had been sinstructed "to keep their hands off, to contain the disturbance;" and off, to contain the disturbance but to take no direct action."

Mr. Nevard, commenting or cold this charge, said, "Looters were digin arrested last night. They are the being arrested today and they will be arrested in the future willow?

Mr. Cassese also accused the may city of indifference and dereliction in not providing riot 19090 helmets for all policemen. He 1 said that only about half of the 18101 patrolmen assigned to Harlem 10 and Bedford-Stuyvesant last mai night had been issued protect the tive helmets.

Mr. Cassese said the associa-999667 tion would defend any police-) man "against any kind of death partmental charges" in the 23510 event he refused to go into a and so dangerous area because he did 5000 not have a helmet.

9,000 on Hand

Mr. Nevard said that the Police Department had more than 9,000 helmets and that and the every available helmet is being unit issued to men in hazardous areas."

The Police Department did $\frac{\partial B}{\partial C}$ not have helmets for about a_{k,t/a,t} third of the patrolman who the came on duty at the Harlem of field headquarters late yesterday afternoon.

At 7:15 P.M., however, hun phoen dreds of helmets were delivered nife; to the field headquarters and rough given to the men on duty.

The police strategy to sup-died press disorders flooded troubled police. areas with as many men as x, ti, possible. The department triedipio to maintain a large reserve 761 force that could be moved out G quickly.

Because Harlem and Bedford-Harro
Stuyvesant are so far from each bits other, the department had two other reserve forces. Generally such 1000 partment's 800-man Tactical Patrol Force are used for M street patrol and patrolmen from other precincts on extended duty are used as the reserve force.
