Two of the defendants have issued a statement that:

"Harper & Row and Mr. power to prevent publication vised in July, 1966, that 'memof any material on the grounds bers of the Kennedy family will place no obstacle in the way of publication' of the book."

The legal weight and validity of the statements issued by each side will be determined at the hearing. It is conceivable that the agreement between the Kennedy and Manchester, which specified a date of publication (Nov. 1968) and the right of review, has been superceded by later oral agree-

The Senator refused all comment on the case today in an appearance at the Overseas Press Club. 54 W. 40th St., where Arthur Schlessinger Jr. presented him with his threevolume history of state of the union messages.
