NYT 11-22-73

6-Man Panel of Experts Named To Examine White House Tapes

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21-|netic recording Chief Federal Judge John J. Thomas G. Stockham Jr., a pro-Chief Federal Judge John J. Thomas G. Stockham Jr., a pro-Sirica announced today the fessor in the computer science department of the University of Utah; and Mark R. Weiss, vice president for acoustics research lected by the Watergate prose-of the Federal Scientific Corticity and integrity of the tapes that the White House has fur-ing last Sunday, developed "a mished to the court."

consuitant;

of Bell Laboratories.

McKnight, an audio and mag-lings."

nished to the court." Ing last Sunday, developed "al nished to the court." draft proposal for a series of Members of the panel are pilot tests to explore possible Richard H. Bolt, chairman of ways to validate the record-the board of Bolt, Beranek and ings." Newman, Inc., Franklin Cooper, president and engineering di-tests, to be completed in Janu-rector of Haskins Laboratories; ary, the judge said, "will pro-James L. Flanagan, head of the acoustics research department of Bell Laboratories. Bell Laboratories. propriate to uncover further Also named were John G. information about the record-