James Earl Ray to Move to U.S. Prison

By MARTIN WALDRON

James Earl Ray, convicted of assassinating the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., is being transferred from a state to a Federal prison for "security reasons," the Justice Department said in Washington yesterday.

Mr. Ray, convicted of shooting the civil rights leader with a rifle from ambush in Memphis on April 4, 1968, will be imprisoned in one of the six Federal maximum-security prisons under an agreement with the state of Tennessee, the Justice Department said.

Neither state nor Federal officials would explain why he was not considered to be safe in the Tennessee maximum security prison at Nashville where he has been serving a 99-year term since pleading guilty in 1969 to the killing.

Justice Department would not say which Federal prison it would transfer Mr. Ray to The Federal Government has maximum-security prisons at day Mr. Ray's first lawyer, Atlanta; Leavenworth, Kan.; Arthur J. Hanes, said in a tele-Lewisburg, Pa.; Marion, Ill., phone interview that if Mr. Ray McNeil Island, Wash., and Terre Haute, Ind.

For Testing First

The Justice Department said malarkey." shat Mr. Ray would be taken from Nashville to the Federal Medical Center at Springfield, worked for the Central Intelli-Mo., for physical and psy-thological testing before being summer and fall of 1968, Mr. sent to one of these prisons. The state of Tennessee will pay plot. the cost of keeping him in the partment said.

under the supervision of the not followed through. fennessee Parole Board while in the Federal prison.

and its contents have not been fend him. Heased.

hired by a group of white that he had shot Dr. King but He was arrested in London Southerners to kill Dr. King, he balked at saying that there in July, 1968, after trying to had been no conspiracy to kill hide in Canada and Portugal. he nation's most prestigious the civil rights leader. ivil rights leader.

Associated Press James Earl Ray

In Birmingham, Ala., yesterwas asserting that he had been Mr. Hanes said that he behired by "Southern whites" to lieved Mr. Ray had been a tool

Mr. Hanes, a former Mayor of

Mr. Hanes quoted him as Federal prison, the Justice De-saying that while he was fleeartment said. ing the authorities in 1968 A spokesman said that there after the assassination he are now about 75 state prison-toyed with the idea of trying ers placed, for one reason or to get the imperial wizard of another, in Federal penitenti-the United Klans of America, ries. The spokesman said that Robert M. Shelton of Tuscaloo-Mr. Ray would continue to be sa, Ala., to shelter him but had as his attorney in November, the street. This week Mr. Ray filed a 1968, on the day his trial was writ for a new trial. Federal scheduled to open in Memphis, throat by a .30-caliber rifle bulDistrict Judge L. Clure Morton and hired the Texas criminal let while standing on the balhas not yet considered the writ, lawyer Percy Foreman to de-

In the spring of 1969, he There were unofficial reports agreed to plead guilty to mur-rooming house across an alley. hat Mr. Ray asserted in the der and to accept a life sen-Mr. Ray had rented a room in application that he had been tence. At his trial he testified that house earlier that day.

Mr. Ray's latest application passport.

for a new trial is one of a series he has filed in the last four years. Thus far, all have been denied.

While serving at Nashville. he has been beaten by other inmates at least once, and on another occasion he tried to

But there have been no recent reports of attempts to attack Mr. Ray, who has been kept segregated from other convicts for the most part.

Mr. Ray's reported assertion that he had been hired by white Southerners to kill Dr. King differs considerably from the story he told in the fall of 1968 to the author William Bradford Huie.

In notes written in the Memphis jail while he was awaiting trial, he said he had been sent to Memphis by a "blond Latin" he knew only as

Mr. Hanes said in Birmingham yesterday that Mr. Ray "always told me he went to Memphis to show some rifles to some people."

Thought He Was Tool

kill Dr. King, "he's talking of either the C.I.A. or of "revolutionary groups financed by Cuba or Red China" who had Birmingham who once been interested in starting a race war in the United States.

Mr. Ray bought a deer rifle summer and fall of 1968, Mr. at a Birmingham gun store in Ray never mentioned any such late March, 1968, and took it to Memphis.

"He said he thought he was going to show it to some people and if they liked it, he would either buy or steal them a bunch of the guns," Mr. Hanes

In the notes that he sent to Mr. Huie, Mr. Ray declared that "Raoul" shot Dr. King while Mr. Mr. Ray dismissed Mr. Hanes Mustang automobile parked on Ray waited for him in a white

Dr. King was struck in the cony of a small Memphis motel. Investigators said that the shot had been fired from a cheap

He was traveling under a false