

Obituaries

ROY E. TOMLINSON, 90

Services will be private for Roy E. Tomlinson, 90, former board chairman and president of the National Biscuit Co. who was with the firm from 1902 until his retirement in 1965. His wife, Eleanor, a son and daughter survive.

CHARLES SCHRIVER, 60

Services for Charles (Hank) Schriver, 60, vice president of the Williamsburg Savings Bank and a former catcher for semi-professional baseball teams in Bushwick, Cedarhurst, and Mount Vernon, will be held tomorrow at Quinn's, 165-20 Hillside Av., Jamaica, Queens. He died Sunday in New York Hospital. His wife, Angelina, and a son survive.

JULIUS MILLER, 64

Services for Julius Miller, 64, president of the Rand chain of dry cleaning stores in Brooklyn, were being held today at the Riverside, 1 Ocean Pkwy., Brooklyn. He died Sunday at the Jewish Chronic Disease Hospital, Brooklyn. He lived at 1148 E. 27th St., Brooklyn. His wife, Belle, and two sons survive.

EDWARD KILROE, 60

Services for Edward Kilroe, 60, director of admissions for the New York Racing Assn., will be held tomorrow at Campbell's, 81st St. and Madison Av. His wife, Mary, survives.

ARTHUR A. MANDELLA, 41

A Requiem Mass for Detective Arthur A. Mandella, 41, who devised a technique for foot-printing newborn infants, will be offered tomorrow at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, Great Kills, S. I. He died Sunday of a cerebral hemorrhage at St. Vincent's Hospital, Great Kills. He lived in Eltingville, S. I. His wife, Helen, and three daughters survive.

APRIL 30, 1968

POST

NEW YORK