C.I.A. Assassination Unit Described

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP) edged in an interview the ex- ing a president ever gave spe-Central The on Intelligence, confirmed the approved of the group.

Mr. Church, an Idaho Democrat, refused to provide details about the unit, but he made it clear that the plans it developed were separate from the CLA's alleged plot to poison Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba in 1961 in connection with the Network State S oped were separate from the lege in Granville, Ohio. C.I.A.'s alleged plot to poison In that speech, Senai Premier Fidel Agency established an official group that probably included assassination or develop assas-Agency established an official group that probably included assassmation of develop assas-group during the early mine-teen-sixties to develop plans said that they developed meth-for removing foreign leaders by means that included assassination of develop assas-means that included assassination of develop assas-tion the removal of un-tion the said that they developed meth-ods for the removal of un-friendly foreign leaders. He is an assassination of develop assassination of develop assas-not more than three persons. He sination plans and capabilities." Neither Mr. Helms, now the United States Ambassador to is an assassination of the second states and the second state tion, two Senators and two said that in addition to assassi- business consultant in Hartford, former intelligence officials nation, the means could have said today. Senator Frank Church, chair-man of the Select Committee era."

existence of the group, but he cial said the planning effort had Mr. Mondale, confirmed the said that the plans it developed begun in the wake of the al-accuracy of the text of the were never carried out. A mem-leged attempt to poison Pre-Senator's speech.

The first hint of the group's Premier Castro. existence came in the prepared text of a speech by Senator Indianapolis, has repeatedly de-Walter F. Mondale, the Minne- clined to comment on reports sota Democrat, at Denison Col- about his role in assassination Bay of Pigs invasion. "This capability had no con-director, and Richard Bissell, a C.I.A. station in Rome. "This capability had no con-nection with the Castro busi-ness," Senator Church said. "It clandestine operations, "have was a separate mission." He claimed that they had 'higher-'In the early days of the Kensaid that other details should level' authorization . . . for set-nedy Administration, there was not be made public until the ting up and running an institu-a request made that the C.I.A. committee releases its report tionalized assassination capa-on alleged C.I.A. assassination bility within the C.I.A. called develop an 'executive action' plots. The report is expected 'executive action.'" to be made public this month. A former high official of the we pressed them, neither Helms group was set up before the intelligence agency, who de-nor Bissell would say that any alleged plot against Premier clined to be identified, acknowl-president, or anyone represent-Castro.

Intelligence istence of an "executive action" cific orders to undertake an

David Aaron, a member of A second former C.I.A. offi-staff who was traveling with were never carned out. A menn-ber of the committee staff said in 1963. There was no evidence that office at the time, knew of or

Mr. Harvey, now a lawyer in ard M. Helms, a former C.I.A. Harvey was transferred to the where the request had origi-