NYT

Mass at Tufts Pays Tribute to Kennedy 'In Word and Song'

MEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 21 from Ecclesiastes and the sing-ing of "Camelot" by the Rev. (AP) — A tribute was paid tonight to President Kennedy at Tufts University in a memorial mass, in which the responses were sung by folk singers.

The Rev. George Fitzgerald was reported to have been Mr.

Newman Center chaplain at Kennedy's favorite musical. Tufts, who was the celebrant Also on the program were of the mass, arranged the pro-reading of a poem; a folk song, gram. He called it "a tribute "Turn, Turn, Turn," by a Tufts in word and song."

sing out about his life and not ing group.
his death," he said in a brief sermon. "The memory that most were sung by a group of 14 marks our minds is that he lived folk singers from Boston Colhis life fully; he did not stand lege, accompanied by four guioutside it and observe it; he tars. The congregation was inbrought to his own days as a vited to join in some of the young leader a zest and a fresh-simple refrains.

ness that caught the eyes of people the world over.'

The memorial took place in the 83-year-old Goddard Chapel on the Tufts campus, atop a hill a few miles north of Boston.

The program before the start of the mass included a reading

The Rev. George Fitzgerald, was reported to have been Mr.

Also on the program were the freshman, Richard McNeil, and "We wish our community to a closing song by a Tufts sing-